UPCOMING SERVICES

This Week: September 29

"What is Climate Justice?"

Bob Koches, Presenter
Tim Boeve, Service Associate

Explore the complexities of climate justice from the unique perspective of immigrants in Mexico, where the impacts of global warming are increasingly visible. This sermon will delve into the ethical responsibilities we carry as privileged residents in a country facing significant environmental challenges. We'll reflect on how our Unitarian Universalist principles can guide us in addressing climate injustices while navigating our roles as guests in a nation grappling with the consequences of global environmental change.

Next Week: October 6

"Deep Listening"

Rev. Matt Alspaugh, Presenter

In the aboriginal communities in Australia, the word 'Dadirri' means "inner deep listening and quiet still awareness." Such listening may involve words, but it also may involve connecting beyond words. In this service, we explore the idea of dadirri, deep listening: listening to ourselves, deeply listening to others around us, even listening to what is around us, be it the earth, God, or the universe.

Join us tomorrow, Sunday September 29th as we officially welcome our newest members!

Our newest members attended an orientation session on Saturday September 21 and will be signing our membership book tomorrow, Sunday September 29

LCUUF Climate Justice Revival

Join us for three upcoming events focused on Climate Justice here in our Lakeside communities.

September 29: Sunday Service: 12:00 – 1:00 “What is Climate Justice?”

Bob Koches, Presenter. We will begin to explore the complexities of climate justice from the unique perspective of immigrants in Mexico, where the impacts of global warming are increasingly visible.

October 13: 1:00-4:00 “Putting Love at the Center of Climate Justice”

Presenters: Rev. D’Vorah Kelley, Dee Dee Camhi, Catherine Luria

Revival Worship: 1:00-2:00

Revival Workshop: 2:15-4:00

Through celebratory worship and conversations, we will begin to understand climate justice as it pertains to our Lakeside communities. Sunday, our worship will be focused on Love at the Center of Climate Justice. Following worship, we’ll engage in a workshop to identify opportunities for climate justice in our unique context.

October Humanist Discussion Group

The US presidential election is next month. It is a toss up as to whether it will be President Harris or President Trump. We will dispassionately discuss the global implications, from the view of the International Community, of either of them becoming President.

The Humanist Discussion Group will meet, Wednesday October 23rd at 11am Via Zoom. Remember we are on Central Standard Time. Those on Daylight Savings Time please adjust your time. The zoom link is:

Mindfulness With Richard Clarke: Thursday September 26

Ninas Sabias Is The October Share The Basket Charity

For the month of October we are supporting Niñas Sabias here at Lake Chapala. Their mission is to empower girls to participate fully in school and in life. Their goal is to have all girls Lakeside participate in a 10-hour program providing menstrual health, body literacy, and self-care for girls preparing for, or experiencing, puberty. Through mentoring, girls learn to acknowledge their worth, wisdom, and power, as they endeavor to change limitations and burdens into empowerment and strength.

On Oct 27, we will have a Day of the Dead slide show featuring photos of your loved ones and friends who you want to be included. Please send the photos to roy_haynes@aol.com

Photos from previous shows are in this year's slideshow. No need to resend photos used in past shows.

Monthly Women's Group Brown Bag Lunch!

In addition to the 1st & 3rd Mon ZOOM women's group meetings we are adding an IN PERSON BROWN BAG LUNCH at 12N on the 4th Monday. This will be held at Trudy Crippen's house. Please RSVP to Trudy if you plan to attend.
