UPCOMING SERVICES

This Week: Nov 3

Next Week: November 10

"In Repair We Mend Others and Ourselves"

"2025 Pledge Campaign, Building The Beloved Community"

Presenter: Al Castleman (Video Presentation)

Service Associate: Kriss Gang

This Sunday begins our annual Pledge Drive. The theme for last year's campaign was "Building the Beloved Community." Today's service will take a look at what we have accomplished together this year, as well as what resources will we need to meet the challenges and opportunities of the coming year?

Presenter: Ted Fahy

Service Associate: Rev. D'Vorah Kelley

"Repair seems a simple word, but it can hold far deeper meaning. Sunday's reflection is about one Physician's lifelong journey discovering how mending patients was far more than treating them, and was transformative to both healer and healed."

IMPORTANT NOTICES!

The starting time for Saturday rehearsals will be 9:00 am, starting the beginning of November (meaning next week). Please alert your committee, team, etc. and any other individuals you think should know this in the next few days. Thank you in advance!

Share The Basket Charity For November is Operation Feed

For the month of November, we are supporting Operation Feed. For over 30 years, Operation Feed volunteers have been providing food and improving the lives of the very poor and marginalized people of the village of San Juan Cosalá. They provide weekly food despensas to 150 families and individuals who would go hungry without the aid. Operation Feed also supports new program initiatives like cooking classes and crochet projects to involve the people in developing additional income sources and skills.

Handmade Bookmarks to Benefit LCUUF

Since many at Lakeside are avid readers, Adele St. Pierre has created unique and lovely bookmarks to share. She will be offering them before and after the Fellowship Service on November 17th. All donations will go to LCUUF.

Song Leaders, We Need You!

LCUUF is looking for people who like to sing and would be interested in being song leaders for our services. You do not have to read music, just the ability to learn and hold a tune. Song Leaders will be for the hymns that we sing each service. Each week Michael will send you the music and a recording of the hymn to learn at home. Then on Sunday you will meet Michael at 11.30am at the church and have a short rehearsal. It would not necessarily be every week. If you are interested please email Michael at mjrmusic01@gmail.com

November Humanist Discussion Group

In his new book NEXUS: A Brief History of Information Networks from the Stone Age to AI, Harari looks through the long lens of human history to consider how the flow of information has shaped us, and our world. Taking us from the Stone Age, through the canonization of the Bible, early modern witch-hunts, Stalinism, Nazism, and the resurgence of populism today, Harari asks us to consider the complex relationship between information and truth, bureaucracy and mythology, wisdom and power. He explores how different societies and political systems throughout history have wielded information to achieve their goals, for good and ill. And he addresses the urgent choices we face as non-human intelligence threatens our very existence.

The Humanist Discussion Group will meet , Wednesday November 27th at 11am Via Zoom. Remember we are on Central Standard Time .Those on Standard Time please adjust your time zone. The zoom link is <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/86577912863>
