"Practicing Radical Hospitality: Not So Easy"

Presenter: Rev. Matt Alspaugh

Service Associate: Lynn Cleek

Many organizations claim they are inclusive, but what does that mean? We can say that we welcome everyone, that all are included, but reality can kick in when we realize that diverse people may bring diverse ideas and behaviors. How many of those ideas are acceptable, even to a community that is open to diverse beliefs? What kinds of behaviors are acceptable, even in a 'tolerant community? We'll explore radical hospitality as a way to be more inclusive to everyone, from those who are just curious about us, to our longest-term members.

Next Week: Feb 9, 2025

"Everything Is A Holy Miracle" Presenter: Rev. D'Vorah Kelley Service Associate: Sandy Wallon

"The challenging thing becomes, not to look for miracles, but finding where there isn't one." These words from "Everything is Holy Now" by Peter Mayer, who plays in Unitarian churches, offering up his nonreligious spirituality through consistently compelling song. This song is the basis for this service, seeking to make words like "holy" and "miracle" more easily understood – that if we put our awareness on what is happening all around us can be seen as both holy and miraculous.

As part of the service, film maker Andrea Sandler will share the trailer for "The Sacred Run" the lotus and the flower".

Then on Friday, February 14th from 4-6:30 the 55-minute film will be shown in the sanctuary, followed by a Q&A and a fire ceremony in the garden.

You Are Invited

Every year, 10 million new cases of Dementia are diagnosed.

Such diagnoses can be very scary and lonely. It's important to overcome the fear factor of diagnosis and the inability to discuss. If you are one of the millions who are dealing with Dementia or Mild Cognitive Impairment (MCI) you have probably wished that families, friends, health professionals, and other members of your community, could hear and understand your thoughts and feelings. We can help you make that happen. We invite you to an interactive performance program that fosters conversation and understanding in the community.

Through our "To Whom I May Concern ®" Program (TWIMC) we provide a safe place for individuals to talk about their diagnosis, fears, needs and future.

The TWIMC project involves a trained facilitator and a focus group of people living with Dementia or MCI. Together, they co-create a script, written as a series of letters addressed "To whom I may concern ®" that reflect the unique experiences of the group and the message they wish to convey to the audience.

The performance at the end of your discussions is like adding a two-way mirror to a meeting room, allowing care partners and the general publice to listen and learn.

This is a rare opportunity for people with dementia or MCI to speak without being interrupted. If you are interested in being part of this small group (maximum 10 people) or wish more information, please send us an email at:
